

State Alumnae Chairman

Delta Zeta officers and volunteers seek to build connections and community through coaching and mentoring. Within their respective roles, leaders will engage in personal growth, leadership development, teamwork and personal/professional networking. Through relationship building, personal development and execution of role-based responsibilities, officers and volunteers will support Delta Zeta Sorority in fulfilling its mission, vision, purpose and strategic direction.

INTERPERSONAL GOALS AND EXPECTATIONS

- Build relationships through coaching and mentoring.
- Hone executive functioning skills including, but not limited to, adaptive thinking, emotional management, time management, organization, self-monitoring and planning.
- Develop and practice crucial leadership skills including, but not limited to, critical thinking, decision-making, team building, effective communication and delegation.
- Build a personal and professional network of sisters all over the world.

THROUGH SERVICE IN THIS ROLE, DELTA ZETA OFFICERS/VOLUNTEERS ARE EXPECTED TO:

- Participate in educational programming and personal development opportunities as available.
- Actively engage with sisters serving in mentor and mentee roles, and address accountability concerns if needed.
- Support the Delta Zeta Constitution and National Sorority Policies, including fulfillment of specific responsibilities outlined in the Constitution.
- Support mentor/mentee accountability.
- Utilize Delta Zeta tools and resources offered through your role including reviewing communications received.
- Communicate, through established procedures, any concerns or grievances including, but not limited to, bullying/hazing/financial mismanagement/discrimination, etc.

ROLE SPECIFIC OPERATIONAL DUTIES

- Collaborate with Area Alumnae Director (AAD) and College Chapter Director(s) to ensure alumnae and collegiate chapters achieve the goals set forth by the Sorority's strategic plan and complete reporting to communicate chapter(s) progress.
- Support alumnae chapters, chapter associations, alumnae groups and alumnae Panhellenic organizations in both operational and engagement opportunities.
- Support the creation of new alumnae chapters within designated state(s).
- Serve as primary point of contact and resource for individual alumnae, alumnae chapters, alumnae groups and chapter associations within designated state(s).
- Analyze data and identify trends that promote opportunities for connecting and networking alumnae.
- Cultivate support for connection opportunities including, but not limited to, Truly Connected, chapter milestone events and chapter reunions.
- May attend national, regional and local events on behalf of the Sorority such as Truly Connected, chapter reunions, chapter milestone events, etc.

DELTA  ZETA