2025-2026 Impact Report

Empowering Lifelong Growth for Every Delta Zeta

Because of you, Delta Zeta women are growing — in confidence, in leadership, in possibility and in their belief in what they can accomplish. Along with over 8,100 sisters and friends, your generosity provides scholarships, creates leadership opportunities, fosters professional connections and supports women as they grow personally and professionally.

As we evolve together, we continue to adapt to the needs of collegiate women to help them face an ever-changing world. Because of you, Delta Zetas don't just respond — they lead. As we look forward to celebrating 125 years of sisterhood, we remain grateful for our legacy of growth and change, allowing us to meet each new generation's needs in college and beyond.

Thank you for believing in our women, investing in our future and making this sisterhood truly everlasting.

LETTER FROM THE FOUNDATION PRESIDENT

Dear Sisters and Friends,

Your impact through the Delta Zeta Foundation continues to grow! Thanks to your incredible generosity, we keep setting new records and investing in Delta Zeta women in new ways. While the top-line numbers grow impressively — you and 8,198 other donors gave more than $1,614,000 to the Delta Zeta Foundation during the 2025–2026 fiscal year — I am most impressed by our ability to stay nimble so that we can serve our sisterhood.

Because of your support, we awarded $435,750 in undergraduate and graduate scholarships for the upcoming academic year. We have started awarding continuing education scholarships to Delta Zeta women pursuing professional development, preparing for a career change or training to return to work. We also saw the largest volume of requests for emergency support through the Elizabeth Coulter Stephenson Grant this year.

Our sisters' needs are growing and changing, and we are rising to meet them. The Leader Summit and the Tani Austin Ignite the Flame Philanthropy Summit now empower more chapter leaders to make an impact through their roles and for the rest of their lives. The Norma Minch Andrisek Leadership Conference prepares over 200 women each summer to lead on campus, in their communities and throughout their careers. Mental health resources and risk management skills are more important than ever, and Delta Zeta offers them to every member.

As we prepare for Delta Zeta's 125th anniversary, I have been digging into our history. From the beginning, Delta Zeta has always changed. Our ability to adapt is one of our greatest strengths. The Delta Zeta Foundation has been part of that story for 65 years as we provide a way for sisters and friends to invest in every Delta Zeta woman facing an everchanging world.

With each generation, Delta Zeta evolves. Still one thing remains the same: our commitment that this sisterhood be truly everlasting. Your investment through the Delta Zeta Foundation makes that possible. I could not be more grateful for you, and I am excited to see how we continue to grow and change together.

Truly,

Learning to Lead Fearlessly

In June 2026, leaders from chapters all over the country gathered in Minneapolis, Minnesota, for Delta Zeta's 2026 Leader Summit and Tani Austin Ignite the Flame Philanthropy Summit. The weekend event focused on leading confidently and becoming fearless philanthropists through meaningful discussions and various breakout activities.

One participant shared, "Delta Zeta's 2026 Leader Summit and Tani Austin Ignite the Flame Philanthropy Summit allowed me to strengthen my leadership skills and form new ideas and tactics that I can take back to better my chapter. Additionally, I got to experience the impactful work of the Starkey Hearing Foundation after connecting with volunteers who shared their mission stories. I'm so grateful for Delta Zeta and the Delta Zeta Foundation for giving me the opportunity to connect with other sisters while also pouring into myself as a leader and philanthropist."

The Ignite the Flame Philanthropy Summit also celebrated Delta Zeta's 20-year partnership with the Starkey Hearing Foundation. This partnership has allowed advancements in hearing healthcare around the world, with Delta Zetas traveling alongside Starkey to give the gift of hearing in 15 different countries. Starkey staff and volunteers spent time sharing their experiences with our sisters, further fueling our shared passion for speech and hearing.

Thanks to the support of donors to the Delta Zeta Foundation, this Summit strengthens the bonds of sisterhood and empowers Delta Zeta's future leaders and philanthropists.

Coming Home to Oxford Builds Bonds of Sisterhood

Emerging Delta Zeta leaders gathered in Oxford, Ohio, in July for the 2026 Norma Minch Andrisek Leadership Conference (NMALC). This values-based leadership development program grounded in Delta Zeta's six shared values featured focused small-group engagement designed to help participants apply new knowledge to their own chapter experiences while forging deep connections with sisters from across the globe.

One participant reflected: "My understanding of leadership identity evolved from day one to day four by realizing that I am meant to be a leader, and I do belong in the position I am in! Before, I was unsure I was meant for that; now I am confident in myself and my leadership."

Along with transformational programming that helped every participant feel more confident — and more likely — to take on leadership roles in her chapter and her life, participants reveled in the opportunity to see Delta Zeta history firsthand at the National Historical Museum and Headquarters. Little Words Project founder Adriana Carrig, Lambda Lambda–New Jersey, delivered a keynote address and attendees participated in a sisterhood activity of making their own bracelets where new bonds among women from across the country flourished.

A follow-up survey from 2025 attendees showed that these lessons continue to shape leadership behavior and organizational development long after attendees head home from Oxford: "Almost daily, I think about someone I met or something I learned at NMALC 2025. When I was elected President of my chapter, some of the first voices to reach out to me with congratulations were the women I met at NMALC. I have never felt so honored and proud to be a Delta Zeta."

Delta Zeta Foundation donors are making a lasting impact by empowering emerging leaders with lifelong friendships and leadership skills.

Scholarships and Grants

Investing in Every Stage of a Sister's Journey

Education has the power to transform lives, and for 65 years the Delta Zeta Foundation has committed to ensuring that financial barriers never stand in the way of opportunity. Through scholarships and emergency grants, we help sisters pursue their educational goals, whether they are undergraduate members, graduate students or alumnae returning to the classroom to advance their careers or begin a new chapter.

This year, your generosity made a record-breaking impact.

$435,750 awarded in scholarships — the largest amount in Foundation history.

120 Delta Zeta sisters received scholarship support.

$43,370 awarded in emergency grant assistance for the 2025-2026 academic year.

Every scholarship and grant is more than financial assistance. It is an investment in the future of our members and the leaders they will become.

Expanding Opportunities for Lifelong Learning

Learning doesn't end at graduation. To help sisters continue growing personally and professionally, the Delta Zeta Foundation launched a new Continuing Education and Certification Grant that provides financial support for career-focused learning opportunities beyond traditional degree programs, including professional certifications, specialized training and continuing education.

The first grants were awarded in May and July, helping members invest in new skills, advance their careers, and expand their impact in their professions and communities.

"I am deeply appreciative to those sisters whose generosity helped make this grant possible. I want to lead in the education ecosystem and use data to motivate policymakers to work towards meaningful changes for students. The University of Houston's Public Policy and Data Analytics Certificate program is how I am adding more tools to my toolbox." – Courtney Durbin, Pi Theta, Rollins College

Applications are accepted year-round. To learn more or apply, visit www.deltazeta.org.

Building a Lasting Chapter Legacy

Every Delta Zeta chapter has a legacy worth preserving, and now alumnae have a meaningful way to come together to invest in their future. What began as an opportunity for chapter associations (chapter of initiation) to establish an endowed scholarship through the Foundation has grown into a movement, with five chapters currently building scholarships to support future generations of sisters. Once endowed, these funds provide lasting financial assistance to deserving students, helping remove financial barriers so they can pursue their education. Beyond easing the financial burden for students, these efforts are strengthening alumnae engagement, connecting generations of sisters and creating enduring opportunities that will reflect each chapters' commitment to its members for years to come.

Could your chapter association be next? Every chapter association has the opportunity to establish an endowed scholarship and leave a legacy that will support future sisters for generations. Email DZFoundation@deltazeta.org to learn more.

Scholarship Highlights

GRADUATE

Sophia Osterberg
Epsilon
Indiana University

"To every Delta Zeta sister who has supported the Delta Zeta Foundation scholarships, thank you for believing in the future of our members. Your generosity extends far beyond financial assistance; it is a meaningful reminder that Delta Zeta believes in my potential, and I strive to honor your generosity by pursuing a career dedicated to serving others. This fall, I will begin pursuing my Master of Public Policy with a long-term goal to move deeper into policymaking, where I am positioned to develop thoughtful, evidence-based solutions that improve communities and advance the public good. Knowing that so many sisters have invested in my success inspires me, and I look forward to one day giving back in the same way."

UNDERGRADUATE

Shania Carrasco
Xi Iota
Muhlenberg College (PA)

"As a student from an underprivileged background who fully supports herself through school, there have been times when my goals felt overwhelming. Delta Zeta has given me a network of sisters who continually remind me that I am capable of achieving them. This financial assistance allows me to focus more fully on my academics, leadership involvement and service opportunities rather than the stress of covering educational costs. To the Delta Zeta sisters whose generosity made this scholarship possible, thank you. I hope to honor your generosity through my leadership, service and future career."

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN DONORS

"I choose to give monthly because I'm grateful to be in a place in my life where I can give back. Delta Zeta gave me so many opportunities. If my gift can help create opportunities or make things a little easier for another sister, that impact is worth far more to me than simply holding onto it. After all, if we as sisters don't invest in and uplift future leaders of our cherished organization, who will?"

WHY I Give

LISA BIRDWELL ANDERSON
Epsilon Xi, University of Central Arkansas

How has Delta Zeta continued to impact your life as an alumna?

Delta Zetas are my forever friends. Because of Delta Zeta and the Epsilon Xi Chapter at the University of Central Arkansas, I have connections to women across Arkansas and across the country. These women touch all areas of my life — from lifelong friends (since before we were Delta Zeta sisters!) to family to my healthcare providers and their daughters. Delta Zeta connects us.

Why do you support the Delta Zeta Foundation through the General Fund?

I support the Delta Zeta Foundation and Epsilon Xi because I can. I did not have children, and I want to give back to the things I love most. I have been lucky and blessed with the success that I have had with the companies that I worked for over the past few years. For tax purposes, I have needed to give more to the organizations I support, and Delta Zeta is high on that list. I choose to give through the Foundation's General Fund to help meet Delta Zeta's area of greatest need — whatever it is each year. I trust that our Sorority knows how to help our sisters!

Why is "Empower the Woman" an important call to action for you?

As someone who works in sales, I am competitive. I have seen too many women be undervalued and underpaid for the same work as men, even when they are more qualified or more experienced. Women need to be empowered so that we can advocate for ourselves in our personal and professional lives.
